A Delicious Anniversary! Andria’s Seafood Restaurant & Market in Ventura Harbor Village celebrates its 35th Anniversary in May. This high-quality restaurant continues to offer some of the best Fish N Chips on the California Central Coast, along with warm Clam Chowder bowls, and seafood dishes. A small fisherman market offers take-home fish for patrons’ own recipes. Andria’s casual dining experience, puts diners right near water’s edge for perfect boat viewing of theseiners coming in to offload fish. Stacks of onion rings are a customer favorite!Andria's Seafood Restaurant & Market

A Welcome Presence – A new statue of a Mermaid holding a cello, one of three in the Sounds of the Sea series, now welcomes boaters at the entrance to Ventura Harbor on the southern jetty. She was generously donated by local Venturan Alec Benke and is the second statue to flank the entry way in and out of the Harbor. She can be viewed at Harbor Cove Beach in Ventura Harbor.Ventura Harbor

Escape the humdrum, and join the fun at The Ultimate Escape Rooms in Ventura Harbor Village. Nothing about them is scary, in fact, they are totally family-friendly. What happens there? Every room is entertaining, because it's teamwork from the get-go. Everyone uses what is in the room to solve puzzles. The answers to the puzzles lead teams to the code needed to unlock the door, allowing participants to "escape." There are four rooms with such shadowy names as The Wizard's Lair, We Are All Mad Here, The Attic, and Adrift, so visitors can always come back for more. Ultimate Escape Rooms
